

ISIS General Assembly, 17 April 2015, Utrecht University

§ 1 Forthcoming ISIS conferences

Jean-Marc Larrue, Université de Montréal, Canada, informed about the forthcoming ISIS conference in 2017, May 18–20. Rong Ou, Hangzhou Normal University, China, offered herself to organize a future ISIS conference and presented the facilities of her university. The suggestion was received with enthusiasm by the assembly and the chair emphasized that ISIS conferences may well be held more often than biannually.

§ 2 Other business

The issue of an intermedial journal was brought up which resulted in an engaged discussion about possible formats and strategies for publication. Jean-Marc Larrue proposed the organization of a working group of ISIS members, which was seconded. Jean-Marc Larrue was elected to chair the group, to which many members immediately volunteered. A first meeting was suggested to be organized before summer holidays.
